

Research Library
of the late Professor Rudolph "Ruud" Peters,
Emeritus of Islamic Law, University of Amsterdam

Professor Rudolph Peters (University of Amsterdam) who died in March 2022 was one of the world's leading scholars in Islamic Law.

His working library reflects the distinct research areas of its compiler in a unique way: From the history of Jihad, to Egyptian history in Ottoman and Khedival times to his main field of research which was over a period of 40 years Islamic Law.

The library consists of three main subject areas and counts a total of c. 1800 titles:

1. Islamic Law: c. 640 titles, 46% Arabic, 33% English, 7% Turkish, 15% other languages
2. Islamic Studies: c. 500 titles, 22% Arabic, 42% English, 25% Dutch, 8% German
3. Islamic History: c. 660 titles, 31% Arabic, 48% English, 9% Dutch, 6% German

Prices:

- |                                |               |
|--------------------------------|---------------|
| 1. Islamic Law Collection:     | 29.800.00 EUR |
| 2. Islamic Studies Collection: | 22,200.00 EUR |
| 3. Islamic History Collection: | 28,000.00 EUR |

The three subject collections can be purchased separately. If bought together a discount of 15% will apply and the total price will be 68,000.00 EUR instead of 80,000.00 EUR.

A complete list of titles for each subject area is available in Excel or pdf format.

*All prices plus 7% European VAT - if applicable only -
Plus shipping & insurance*

Order No. COL_141