

Research Library of Professor Heinz Halm
(University of Tübingen)

Islamic Denominations & Heresiography

- ✱ 330 titles in 411 volumes, mainly in Arabic and Persian (together 163 titles), English (109), German (80), French (53), published between 1879 and the 2000s.
- ✱ More than 160 volumes in Arabic and Persian, many of which are difficult to find on the market.
- ✱ Books are in very good condition. A complete list of all titles in the collection is available
- ✱ This collection is being sold in its entirety.

The specialised research library of renowned Shi‘a expert Heinz Halm (Emeritus, University of Tübingen) focuses on Islamic historiography, with special emphasis on Shi‘ism, Ismailism, Sufism, and other Islamic sects/denominations.

SHI‘ISM AND ISMAILISM form the largest part of this collection. Around 85 titles deal with Twelver Shi‘ism, from classical sources (Ibn Bābawayh’s Man lā yahḍuruhu al-ḥaqīh in four volumes, al-Ṭūsī’s Fihrist and Riḡāl, al-Najāshī, al-Muḥid, a facsimile of a rare manuscript of Nahj al-balāgha) to studies of Khomeini and the Islamic Revolution. About 65 titles cover Ismailism: the Fatimid-era texts edited by Muṣṭafā Ġalīb, al-Qaḍī al-Nu‘mān’s Da‘ā‘im al-Islām and Ta‘wīl al-da‘ā‘im, Daftary’s reference works, the Institute of Ismaili Studies series, and two rival editions of the Kitāb al-Ṣirāṭ. The Zaydī, Druze, Alawite and Ibadi minorities are covered in depth.

CHRONICLES AND HISTORIOGRAPHY are the library’s second great strength, with more than 60 titles. They include de Goeje’s complete Leiden edition of al-Ṭabarī’s Annales (15 volumes, 1879–1901). Other multi-volume sets are al-Mas‘ūdī’s Murūḡ ad-ḍahab (7 volumes, Beirut 1966–79), Ibn Khallikān’s Wafayāt al-a‘yān (6 volumes, Cairo 1948–49), al-Subkī’s Ṭabaqāt al-Shāfi‘iyya (8 volumes, Cairo 1964–71) and al-Khaṭīb al-Baghdādī’s Tārīkh Baghdād (14 volumes). Mamluk and Ayyubid sources, and Guest’s al-Kindī.

THEOLOGY, PHILOSOPHY AND LAW are well represented. The Brethren of Purity (Ikhwān al-Ṣafā‘) appear in a Dār Ṣādir Beirut edition and a nearly complete of the Oxford/IIS critical series. The library also holds 16 works by Josef van Ess, including Theologie und Gesellschaft.

Order No: COL_188

21000 EUR

All prices are net prices in Euro (without VAT) and exclusive of shipping, insurance and customs